

APRIL 28-29, 2020 | NOVI, MICHIGAN

2020 CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY summit

This year's two-day event offers attendees three distinct options for participating. Join us for the first day (April 28th) to hear insights on a wide range of environmental issues; the second day (April 29th) for sessions focusing on human rights, sustainability and conflict minerals; or attend both days to explore all of these topics and more!

DAY 1

ENVIRONMENTAL ISSUES

April 28th Highlights:

- "Trends for Engaging the Supply Chain" – Bruno Sarda, Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP)
- "GHG Reduction: Best Practices" – Alfred Hildreth, General Motors Company and Pete Langlois, U.S. Department of Energy
- "Design Packaging for Sustainability and Circularity" – Martina Prox, iPoint-systems GmbH
- "Circular Economy and the Materials Marketplace" – Michael Wurzman, RSJ Technical Consulting and Dana Cooper, Cooper-Hayes LLC
- "Scope 3 Calculations: Benefits & Trends" – Michael Lipowicz, GZA GeoEnvironmental

DAY 2

HUMAN RIGHTS, SUSTAINABILITY & CONFLICT MINERALS

April 29th Highlights:

- "Global Legislative Updates" – George Cajati, U.S. Department of State
- "Global Labor Standards Setting for the Workplace" – Gabriella Rigg Herzog, US Council for International Business
- "Reporting Frameworks and How Industry Uses Them" – Catherine Tyson, Responsible Business Alliance and Kristan Longsdorf, Honda of America
- "Risk Mitigation: An NGO Perspective" – Julija Menise and Soledad Mills, The DragonFly Initiative
- "Blockchain: A Solution to Today's Traceability Challenges" – Jennifer Blair, IBM
- "Trade Compliance & Forced Labor" – Kenneth J.F. Kennedy, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- "ESG Speaker Series Panel Discussion" – Dina Ciarmatori, Neuberger Berman, Lee O'Dwyer, Bloomberg L.P. and Jessica Urdangarin, BrownFlynn

For a more complete agenda – and to reserve your seat today! – visit bit.ly/AIAGCRSummit2020.